IN THEIR OWN WORDS:

“Corbin Capital Partners is where high-performing teams thrive in a culture anchored by mutual respect, candid feedback and shared purpose: clients succeed, or we fail. As a majority women-owned, independent firm, we champion inclusion, innovation and continuous growth. Employees value our hybrid flexibility, executive coaching, generous benefits and strong philanthropic mission. We minimize corporate politics so talent can focus on results, not distractions. Frequent feedback loops and tailored support foster gratitude, trust and engagement — keeping our teams inspired to grow, collaborate and lead in alternatives.”

THREE COOL THINGS:

- Creates custom bobblehead figures for employees reaching their 10-year work anniversaries.
- Designates “firmwide remote weeks” during Fourth of July week, Thanksgiving week, and the last week of December.
- Provides access to a specialized medical consultant who helps employees navigate complicated health situations and connects them with top specialists for serious conditions like cancer or heart disease.

EMPLOYEES SAY:

- “Culture of work hard but have fun. Commitment to employees and benefits. Tone from the top and focus on employee well-being.”
- “This organization values hard-working employees. Doing your best is rewarded at this organization. It is an inclusive organization that values the employees.”
- “The people here are very supportive and kind. I have a very flexible role and am able to work on whatever I want to. I can drive the direction of my career path.”
